

Information for Prospective Buyers

AUCTION PREVIEW

A Preview exhibition of the works donated to the Auction will be available for viewing from Thursday 1 March 2007 January until Saturday 31 March, 2007.

GST AND BUYER'S PREMIUM

Buyers are reminded that the purchase price will be the sum of the final bid price plus 10% GST.

No buyer's premium will be charged.

RESERVE PRICE

The reserve price is the confidential minimum hammer price at which MGA and the donor have agreed to sell a Lot. If a reserve price is not realised the MGA reserves the right to pass in the work on behalf of the artist.

Catalogue entries include pre-sale estimates intended as a guide for prospective buyers.

Items will be sold to the highest bidder at hammer price plus 10% GST with funds raised through the Auction contributing towards the development, care, conservation and promotion of MGA's leading collection of Australian photography.

FRAMED WORKS

Please take into account when bidding that you will be purchasing the works framed. The cost of each frame is included in the purchase price. It should be noted that all works have been archivally mounted and framed by MGA staff and Sandra Cockburn Art Services using museum quality conservation materials.

COLLECTION OF ARTWORKS SOLD

Purchasers of large artworks will need to arrange collection of purchases between Tuesday 3 April and Sunday 8 April 2007.

ABSENTEE BIDS

Absentee bids should be received at least 24 hours before the Auction commences.

Lots will always be bought for the highest bid price. In the event of identical bids, the first bid received will take precedence. Always indicate a "top limit" – the amount to which you would bid if you were attending the auction yourself.

SUCCESSFUL BIDS

Successful bids will be processed on the evening of 31 March 2007 with successful absentee bids processed at this time and notified on Monday 2 April 2007 by phone or fax.

PROCESSING BIDS

MGA will not process bids without confirmed credit card details. Full payment is required before artwork can be collected.
